PHOTOGRAPHS, DISPLAYS, FAMILY HISTORY, MUSIC, COSTUMES, WW1 HISTORY WALK

Find out about researching your WW1 family history

Explore historic material from Bath Record Office and Local Studies – maps, photographs, books, and WW1 letters and diaries

Watch the slideshow of old photographs – go back in time with Bath In Time and see Bath and the surrounding area as it was in the 1910s

Bring your WW1 memorabilia and medals, and we'll help you find out about their history

Hear the songs of the period – why not join in and sing along?

Try-on replica costumes of the period

For children – Create a soldier's cap from WW1 and make some historic medals to take home

11.30am: Join local writer Andrew Swift on a walk to find out about some of the challenges Bath faced during World War One. Prompt start at 11.30am for 1 hour

And meet our very special visitors from 1917
